AUGLAIZE COUNTY, WAYNE TOWNSHIP: TURNER CEMETERY

TURNER CEMETERY: ITS HISTORY AND BURIALS

Many of Ohio's older cemeteries are no longer in existence, having become yet another part of history. Many reasons may be given, i.e., neglect, disuse, or as in the case of Turner Cemetery, having been plowed under. Unfortunately, the loss is still greater with the realization that many times no records were kept for these older cemeteries, thereby losing valuable genealogical information.

Recently located, in a series of notebooks donated in 1969 to the Allen County Historical Society in Lima, Ohio, was the record of burials in Turner Cemetery along with an outline of grave locations. These notebooks were donated to the Society by Mrs. Clarice Yeo Young, in memory of her brother Burgett Everett Yeo, the compiler of the notebooks. Both Mrs. Young and Burgett Yeo were direct descendants of the Turner family.

During the years 1835-37, Lee Turner, Sr. entered with the government 120 acres of land in Section 2 of Wayne Township, Auglaize County, Ohio. Unfortunately, he only survived a few years after moving to this area. His death, occurring in August of 1838 was the precipitator of Turner Cemetery. His grave, at his request, was located on a hillside on his own land within view of the log cabin. Supposedly his words were, "I would rather be buried on my own land than on the land of someone else."

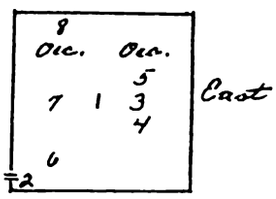
Turner Cemetery was one of the earlier cemeteries in Wayne Township. Located in the Northeast corner of Section 2, it was seven to eight hundred feet from the Turner log cabin. In size it was approximately 35 to 40 feet square.

Although anyone was allowed burial in Turner Cemetery, the only interments were those of individuals connected to Mt. Zion Baptist Church in nearby Auglaize Township, Allen County. However, when the first church building was built and the need for a public burial ground became evident, Turner Cemetery began falling into disuse, the last burial occurring in 1859. It was a semi-private cemetery maintained by the family of Lee Turner, Sr. until 1896. Prior to this date, however, the Wayne Township trustees erected a horizontal wooden fence around it establishing township authority.

According to the records, a total of 13 persons were buried in Turner Cemetery, with the majority being children. Except for one, the names of the children are not known and not all are indicated on the grave location outline. Number one on the outline below refers to an apple tree planted in the Cemetery by Nancy Turner, after the death of her son, Lee. The records state that the branches of this tree covered more than half of the cemetery.

1. Apple Tree
2. Bars to entrance of cemetery
3. Grave of Lee Turner, Sr.: 8/25/1807 - 8/13/1838
4. Grave of Lee Turner, Jr.: 11/17/1838 - 10/28/1857
5. Lot for Elizabeth Turner [unused]
6. Grave of Margaret Burgett: 9/11/1858 - 10/14/1859
7. Grave of Nancy Turner, died 9/5/1840. 57y 5m 1d.
8. Grave of Joseph Williams, a veteran of the War of 1812. (Died between 1843-1859).

Two other graves simply marked "Occupied"



1. Children of Benjamin and Charity Turner Madden.
2. Children of William and Hannah Williams Neal.
3. Two children of John and Lovey Bartlett Turner.
4. Benjamin Madden, died May/June, 1843.

CARROLL COUNTY PATRIOT HONORED: WILLIAM ROBINS

Carroll Co. Chapter OGS, 59 3rd St. NE, Carrollton OH 44615

It has been more than 200 years since William Robins put his life on the line for a fledgling country, but his service has not been forgotten. In May 1990, 16 descendants of the Revolutionary War soldier gathered to attend a ceremony to mark his grave. The event held at Carroll County's Scroggsfield Presbyterian Church and cemetery was sponsored by the Great Trail Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution. The grave stones of Robins and his wife Elizabeth were reset by the DAR and a Revolutionary War marker permanently placed in front of the stones.

In 1979 William Robins was accepted as Pioneer Number 1507 in the First Families of Ohio. Descendants are Shirley Patterson Anderson, Doris Cline Baker and Lois Ray Carpenter, all of Carroll County. He lived on a farm near Scroggsfield before 1820 which at that time was a part of Columbiana County.

The following biography of William Robins was researched and written by Shirley Anderson, a descendant through daughter Tamar Robins, and was read at the ceremony.

Accoring to the declaration given by William Robins when he applied for a pension on 8 Jan 1820, he was born in 1761. He does not give his parents' names or his place of birth. In the spring of 1777 he enlisted at Monmouth Court House, New Jersey and served as a private in Capt. John Burrows company of foot soldiers, in Col. Ogden's Regiment. He was only sixteen years old. According to the rolls, William enlisted 15 May 1777 for a term of three years and was honorably discharged in July of 1780. His pay was six and two-thirds dollars per month.

He was engaged in the Battles of Springfield, Monmouth, Red-Bank Fort, and Germantown. From 1 Dec 1777 to 30 Apr 1778 he was assigned to a company commanded by Major William Harrison. In May and June of 1778 he served at Mt.Holly, and then in July he was sent to Elizabethtown. In September the muster roll lists him as "sick, present." By November he is "sick at Monmouth Courthouse," in December "sick-Brunswick," January the same -- then January "sick, absent." Perhaps he went home to recover. By February of 1779 he was serving as a guard at Elizabethtown. April and May were served at Easton which concluded the muster roll records in his pension file. There is a total of 65 pages in the pension file, including many letters to prove his age, matital status and service record.

There is a gap of nine years where no record of his whereabouts or activities has surfaced. The next record of William is found in the marriage record of the Neshaminy Presbyterian Church at Hartsville in Bucks Co., Penna. He was married to Elizabeth LAUGHEAD on 29 Oct 1789 by Rev. Nathaniel Irving. According to Elizabeth, she was married on October 28th.

In the 1775 tax records for Warwick Township in Bucks Co., there is a John Laughead who leased 180 acres, had three horses, two cows, twelve sheep and paid tax of one pound, two shillings, six pence. He also appears on the tax record for 1778 with the name spelled Loughead. It is possible that John is Elizabeth's father.

There is a John Robbins recorded in Lower Makefield Township, Bucks Co., who leased land and owned 1 cow in 1775 and 1778. A John Robins also leased a house in Buckingham Township in 1775 and 1778. Buckingham Township borders Warwick Township on the east. No relationship of our William to either of these men has been proved, but it is possible that one may be a brother and the other his father.

In the first federal census of 1790 William Robins is listed as the head of a household of one male over 16 and one female, in Bucks County. By 1800 William and Elizabeth had moved westward across the mountains and settled near Uniontown in Fayette Co., Penna. According to the census for that year there were four boys under ten years, probably John, William Jr., Joseph and Daniel; one girl between ten and sixteen years (their eldest daughter Tamar) and William and Elizabeth who were between twenty-six and forty-five years. The 1810 census shows the family living in Washington Township, Fayette County, Penna. There are two males under ten, three males between ten and sixteen, one male between sixteen and twenty-six, one male over forty-five, two females under ten and one female between twenty-six and forty-five. By this time Tamar was married and living with her husband's family.

According to pages from a Bible which were sent to the War Department to confirm ages, William Robins was born 16 Mar 1761 and Elizabeth was born 10 May 1766. Their ten children were:

Tamar born 5 May 1791 who married Isaac LEWTON around 1807, probably in Fayette Co., Penna.

John born 8 Sep 1792 who married first Sarah CRABBS on 15 Mar 1816 in Jefferson Co., OH, and (2) Mrs. Matilda KENNEDY on 20 Feb 1845 in Carroll Co OH. John servied in the War of 1812.

William born 25 Jly 1794 ... no further record.

Joseph born 29 Jne 1796 may have married first Ann McCLAIN on 25 Dec 1824 in Jefferson Co OH, and (2) Elizabeth KNOX on 13 May 1841 in Carroll Co OH.

Daniel born 21 Jne 1798 may have married first Jane MAPLE 24 Nov 1825 in Jefferson Co OH and (2) Saloma FAST 28 Feb 1828 in Columbiana Co OH.

Benjamin born 7 Jne 1802 married Mary THOMPSON 20 Oct 1824 in Jefferson Co OH.

Elizabeth born 14 Feb 1804 ... no further record.

Ruel born 18 May 1806 ... no further record.

Rebecca born 5 Jly 1809 ... no further record.

Martha born 9 May 1811 married 27 Mar 1827 to John McCLAIN in Jefferson Co OH.

About 1814 the family moved to Columbiana County Ohio. The State Auditor's land office did not find that William Robins was an original land grant owner. The deed book of Columbiana County showed that William bought two pieces of property: on 10 Jan 1822 from Thomas George and wife Rachel (v7 p392) and on 21 May 1823 from John Robins and wife Sarah (v8 p457).

In 1820 William Robins applied for a pension for his service in the Revolutionary War. This was entered in the Court of Common Pleas in Columbiana County. The date of the original declaration was 8 Jan 1820. He gave the following statement concerning his circumstances: "My family consists of my wife aged 54 years who is weakly, a sick son named William Robins Jr. aged 26 years, afflicted with convulsive fits for 18 years past; a daughter named Elizabeth aged 16 years; a son Ruel aged 14 years; a daughter aged 10 named Rebecca and Martha, aged 9. My occupation has been that of farmer, but I now am unable to support myself by my labor." His total assets including land and personal property amounted to only $121.65, and he owed a debt of $12.00.

William, who had served as a private in the New Jersey Continental Army, was placed on the pension roll 31 May 1820 with an annual allowance of $96.00. This pension which seems like such a small amount today must have been a great blessing to the family. He died 7 Aug 1837 and was buried in the Scroggsfield Cemetery.

Elizabeth applied for widow's pension in 1840 and this was issued in January 1841 at the rate of $80.00 per annum. She died 19 Jne 1849 and was buried beside her husband in the Scroggsfield Presbyterian Cemetery in Carroll County, Ohio.

CUYAHOGA COUNTY: CLEVELAND, ST. MALACHI CATHOLIC CHURCH, MARRIAGES, 1899-1900

Greater Cleveland Genealogical Society, Chapter of O.G.S.

St. Malachi Marriages Records, Volume One (Dec. 20, 1865 to June 28, 1899) were printed in 1978 by the Greater Cleveland Genealogical Society. These records were copied by LeGai Gilby, Florence Steffa, Gertrude Nelson and Mary Clare Yarham. Indexing, cross-referencing and typing were done by Patricia Tabar, Genevieve Campbell, Linda Cuthbert and Shibley Cahill. Requests were made that people not contact the Church concerning these records, as the original records are in old books which will not withstand much handling. In addition, the staff at the church is limited and they do not have time to handle requests for copies of old records. These records have been arranged alphabetically by both the husband's and the wife's surnames.

GALLIA COUNTY, GALLIPOLIS: THE FRENCH FIVE HUNDRED

compiled by Henrietta C. Evans and Mary P. Wood, for Gallia County Chapter, O.G.S.

Gallipolis, Gallia County, celebrates its bicentennial in 1990. Settled October 17, 1790 by a group of Frenchmen who later became known as the French Five Hundred, Gallipolis has a fascinating place in history. The third oldest settlement in the Northwest Territory, it was settled as a result of a land speculation by the Scioto Company which defrauded the French. The Ohio Company actually owned the land, and the French who remained were forced to buy their land a second time from them. No known list of the French 500 exists and as many were thought to have been indentured either to the Scioto Company or to the more elite French, their names may never appear. To make some sort of a list we have compiled the names found on the list of Town Lots drawn in Gallipolis in 1791, and also those whose names were drawn (who were males 18 and over or widows of any of the original settlers) for free land in the French Grant in Scioto County in 1795. Although far from complete and with many, many misspellings, perhaps this list will be of help to someone.

THE GOLDTRAP FAMILY OF HAMILTON COUNTY, OHIO

by Walter B. Smith II, C.G., 7007 Connecticut Avenue, Chevy Chase, MD 20815-4935

First Generation So Far Found

John GOLDTRAP was born about 1728. One wonders if he was of Dutch or German origin. (The word goldtropf means "drop of gold" in German.) The name Goldtrap has been so extremely rare in America, it seems likely that John was himself the Goldtrap immigrant. If so, he had arrived by 1750, by which time he was a resident of northern New Jersey, where many Dutch settlers lived.

John died in 1791 in Hamilton County, Ohio, and is buried near Reading in Sycacore Township, Hamilton County.[1] He was married, 1st, on 14 July 1750 in Somerset County, N.J., (as a resident of same), to Catharine MARLAT, also a resident of Somerset County.[2] He was married, 2nd, about 1790 in Hamilton County, Ohio, to -- CUNNINGHAM, daughter of Lt. Col. James CUNNINGHAM (1740-1812) and his first wife ----. (James was married, 2nd, in 1787 to Janet PARK, presumably in Kentucky, to which he moved that year en route to Ohio.) A native of Scotland, James came to Ohio from Lancaster County, Pa., and in 1789 was the first settler of Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, Ohio.[3]

John served in Capt. Jacob TEN EYCK's Company of the First Regiment, Somerset County, N.J., Militia.[4] He and his son John (see below) were living in Somerset County until at least 1785. The elder John's arrival in Sycamore Township, Ohio, was no doubt by 1790. He acquired land in Section 22 in Sycamore Township.[5]

The child of John Goldtrap and his wife Catharine Marlat, born in Somerset County, N.J., was:

\+ i. John GOLDTRAP, born about 1751.

Second Generation

John GOLDTRAP (John) was born about 1751 in Somerset County, N.J. He died after 1785. He apparently was married about 1772 in Somerset County to Margaret KITCHELL, said to have been related to two Revolutionary soldiers.[6]

John was of the right age--more so than his father--to have served in the Revolution. Yet we know there were both an elder and a younger John Goldtrap in Somerset County, N.J., in 1769-1785 (see below), too early a period for the citations to have referred to the John born in 1773. It seems possible that the present John never made it to Ohio and that the two John Goldtraps in Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, Ohio, starting about 1790 were not father and son but grandfather and grandson.

Further muddling matters is the fact that, according to the source, John's wife Margaret Kitchell was the granddaughter of two Revolutionary soldiers. The very earliest that a granddaughter of a Revolutionary soldier could have been born was 1775. Either Margaret was not such a granddaughter, but was perhaps the sister of a Revolutionary soldier; or the source had this John and a later Goldtrap man confused.

There were three Revolutionary soldiers named Kitchell from New Jersey who later moved to Hamilton County, Ohio: Daniel, born 1747, son of John KITCHELL and his wife Keziah BALL; Lieut. Moses, born 1740, son of Joseph KITCHELL and his wife Rachel BATES; and Asa, born 1748, brother of Moses.[7]

Called "John Goldtrap, Jr.," John appears six times in 1769-1785 as a witness to a will or an inventory-taker in Somerset County, N.J., and, in one instance in 1773, in next-door Morris County (Hanover Township). In two cases, the Somerset County testators resided in Bridgewater Township there.[8] His and his wife's known children, born in Somerset County, N.J., were:

\+ i. John GOLDTRAP, born 15 May 1773
ii. ----- GOLDTRAP (dau.), born about 1775; married Libeus MARSHALL and res. Reading, Sycamore Twp., Hamilton Co., Ohio (see below); no more known.

Third Generation

John GOLDTRAP (John, John) was born on 15 May 1773 in Somerset County, N.J. He died on 5 September 1830 æ. 57 in Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, Ohio, and is buried there at Carpenter's Run Baptist Cemetery, now called Plainfield Road Cemetery.[9] He was married on 5 July 1796 in Hamilton County to Ann VOORHEES.[10] She was born on 8 February 1780 also in Somerset County, N.J., and died on 15 July 1849 æ. 69 in Sycamore Township and is buried there at Hopewell Cemetery, village of Montgomery.[11]

Although only 16 when marrying John Goldtrap, Ann apparently was the widow GAVEN. That is the surname which the marriage record gives her, whereas her gravestone (which gives her dates) names her "Ann Voorhees Goldtrap." Alternatively, John's first wife was née Ann Given and he was married a second time, his second wife having been Ann Voorhees.

Ann no doubt was the granddaughter of Abraham VOORHEES, Sr. (1735?- 1812), one of the earliest settlers of the township, who was descended from Coerts VOORHIES, who landed on Long Island from the Netherlands in 1660. Abraham with his five sons (Abraham, Minue, Garret, John, and Jacob) and two sons-in-law (Thomas HIGGINS and Jon RYNERSON)[12] built Voorhees Station in 1794 in Section 33 of Hamilton County, near the locations of the future towns of Lockland and Reading.[13]

John Goldtrap was brought to Ohio from New Jersey by either his father or his Goldtrap grandfather when he was 16 or 17. He settled on the Goldtrap land in Section 22 of Sycamore Township.[14] He was a voter of Hamilton County for the General Assembly in 1798. In the early 1800s, he owned a lot for a while in the village of Reading, Sycamore Township, as did his wife's father and uncle (we do not know which was which), Abraham VOORHEES, Jr., and Garret VOORHEES. According to the source, John had been "an early settler at Evendale," a place which does not appear on the 1881 township map of Hamilton County (unless it is a reference to Avondale in Mill Creek Township).[15]

John's lot in Reading was on the east side of Reading Road, just above Pleasant Street, on land that had belonged to James THURSTON, the first constable of Reading. By 1806, John had opened a tavern near his home in Reading. He sold it in 1808 to Libeus MARSHALL, the husband of his sister, who operated the tavern until 1824.[16] The largest fee paid for a license in Hamilton County in 1808-1809 was Libeus's--$11.25 (Abraham Voorhees was a poor third with $1.66).[17]

In 1809 John was a taxpayer of Springfield Township, Hamilton County. Because the western part of Sycamore Township and northern part of Mill Creek Township were then included in Springfield Township, that does not tell us where his land was in 1809.[18] The next year he was taxed as a land owner in Mill Creek Township.[19] Given the shifting township boundaries, his land may have been in what is now Sycamore Township all along. John bought 160 acres, constituting the northwest corner of Section 22 in Sycamore Township, from Joseph RIDENOUR for $1,440 on 13 August 1814.[20] The tract probably became his permanent home.

John died intestate on 5 September 1830. His eldest son William was appointed administrator five days later. His son Thomas successfully sued in November 1830-February 1831 to have the estate partitioned. Thanks to the court record, we know of all of John and Ann's children.[21]

The children of John Goldtrap and his wife Ann Voorhees, born in Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, Ohio (see court record just noted, in some cases giving their ages, from which the order of birth below is estimated), were:

\+ i. William GOLDTRAP, born 18 Aug. 1797[22]
ii. Mary GOLDTRAP, born about 1799; married Thomas CUNNINGHAM; living 1831; no more known (see court record mentioned above) \+ iii. Thomas GOLDTRAP, born about 1801
iv. Sarah GOLDTRAP, born about 1803; married Aaron MYERS; living 1831; no more known
v. Elizabeth GOLDTRAP, born about 1805; married John B--- CROSLEY; living 1831; no more known

+ vi. Charlotte GOLDTRAP, born 26 Dec. 1808[23]
+ vii. Jane GOLDTRAP, born 14 Nov. 1812[24]
+ viii. Nancy GOLDTRAP, born 7 June 1816[25]
+ ix. John GOLDTRAP, born about 1818.

Fourth Generation

William GOLDTRAP (John, John, John) was born on 18 August 1797 in Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, Ohio. He died on 11 November 1866 æ. 69 probably in Symmes Township, Hamilton County (census–see below), and is buried at the IOOF Cemetery between Owensville and Stonelick, Clermont County, Ohio.[26] He was married, 1st, about 1827 to Naomi HUNT.[27] She was born on 17 January 1809 and died on 30 June 1830 æ. 21 and is buried at Carpenter's Run Baptist Cemetery, now called Plainfield Cemetery, in Sycamore Township.[28] He was married, 2nd, about 1831 to Phoebe ——. She was born on 25 June 1802 and died on 29 September 1846 and is buried aside William.[29] He was married, 3rd (no issue), on 15 May 1848 in Clermont County to Belinda ——, widow of —— ROLLINS.[30] She was born on 15 September 1806 and died on 15 April 1883 æ. 76 and is buried at the IOOF Cemetery between Owensville and Stonelick, Clermont County, Ohio (not with William).[31]

William's gravestone suggests the possibility that he served in the War of 1812. On 10 September 1830 he was appointed administrator of his father's estate in Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, five days after his father died (see above). He evidently had moved away by the time his second wife Phoebe died in 1846, judging by her place of burial.

The 1850 Census shows William with a farm valued at $18,000 in Symmes Township, Hamilton County. In addition to his four unmarried children, his third wife Belinda, and her five-year-old daughter Roxalana A. ROLLINS, he had a 25-year-old farmer and native of Ireland, Matthew DONAHUE, living with him.[32]

The children of William Goldtrap and his wife Naomi Hunt, born in Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, Ohio, were:

+ i. Harriet GOLDTRAP, born about 1828
ii. Naomi GOLDTRAP, born 28 March 1830; died unmarried 7 Feb. 1852 æ. 21 prob. in Symmes Twp., Hamilton Co., where she res. with her father as of 1850 (census); bur. aside her mother in Sycamore Twp.[33]

The children of William Goldtrap and his wife Phoebe ——, born probably in Sycamore or Symmes Township, were:

iii. Samuel GOLDTRAP, born about 1833 (census); at home 1850; no more known; the 1870 Census shows no Goldtrap household in Ohio besides that of his 1st cousin, John S. Goldtrap of Fayette Co. (see below)
+ iv. Thomas M— GOLDTRAP, born 18 Sept. 1835
+ v. Margaret A— GOLDTRAP, born 2 Oct. 1840.

Thomas GOLDTRAP (John, John, John) was born about 1801 in Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, Ohio. He died on 17 June 1879 at Goshen, Clermont County, Ohio.[34] He was married about 1827 to Mary M. ——,[35] who was born in 1810 and died on 26 May 1875 æ. 64 in Clermont County, Ohio.[36] It is conceivable that her full name was Mary Margaret KITCHELL (note that she and Thomas named a daughter "Margaret") and that Mrs. Whallon of Cincinnati, the source in the late 1930s of much information for the DAR on the genealogies of the Revolutionary soldiers of Hamilton County, Ohio, had her confused as the wife of Thomas Goldtrap's grandfather (see above). Thomas's wife was of the right age to have been the granddaughter of Revolutionary soldiers.

Thomas intervened in 1830-1831 to bring about the partition of his father's estate in Hamilton County, Ohio (see above). When he died intestate in Clermont County in 1879, John M. PATTISON filed a $3,000 bond to settle his estate, listing Thomas's children. Who Pattison was is not known.

The children of Thomas Goldtrap and his wife Mary M. ——, born in Clermont County, Ohio (in the order listed in his probate), were:

i. Margaret A— GOLDTRAP; married ----- SMITH; res. Greensburg, IN, as of 1879
ii. Elizabeth J— GOLDTRAP; married ----- HILL; res. Marathon, OH, as of 1879
iii. Emma GOLDTRAP; married ----- GOLDEN; res. Owensville, OH, as of 1879
iv. Mary C— GOLDTRAP; married ----- ROW; res. Osgood, IN, as of 1879
+ v. John S— GOLDTRAP, born 13 July 1844[37]
vi. Sally M— GOLDTRAP; married ----- BICKMORE; res. Goshen, OH, as of 1879
vii. Arthur C— GOLDTRAP; res. Osgood, IN, as of 1879 viii. Thomas J— GOLDTRAP; res. Nashville, TN, as of 1879
ix. Frank E— GOLDTRAP; res. Osgood, IN, as of 1879
x. James G— GOLDTRAP; res. Tennessee as of 1879.

Charlotte GOLDTRAP (John, John, John) was born on 26 December 1808 in Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, Ohio. She died on 7 February 1877 æ. 68 and is buried with her brother William at the IOOF Cemetery between Owensville and Stonelick, Clermont County, Ohio.[38] She was married before November 1830 probably in Sycamore Township (her father's probate) to Snowden FERREE. He was born on 1 June 1804 and died on 9 September 1876 æ. 72 and is buried aside Charlotte.

Charlotte and Snowden were named in her brother Thomas's suit in 1830-1831 for the partition of her father's estate (see above). We do not know where they later resided.

The known children of Charlotte Goldtrap and her husband Snowden Ferree, born perhaps in Hamilton County, Ohio (buried with their parents), were:

i. Morris B— FERREE, born 23 Oct. 1843; died 18 Sept. 1875 æ. 31
ii. David W— FERREE, born 1846; died 1941; married Laura L. -----, who was born 1850 and died 1920; they had Lydia L. FERREE, born 1872, died 1880
iii. —— FERREE, born 26 May 1854; died 6 Dec. 1872 æ. 18.

Jane GOLDTRAP (John, John, John) was born on 14 November 1812 in Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, Ohio. She died on 17 November 1838 æ. 26 at or near Piqua, Miami County, Ohio.[39] She was married on 6 November 1833 in Hamilton County (as his 1st wife) to Squire Little AYRES.[40] He was born on 21 August 1810 in Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, and died on 13 September 1849 æ. 39 in Spring Creek Township, Miami County,[41] son of Benajah Ayres and his wife Susanna —— of Sycamore Township and later Miami County.[42]

Jane and Squire probably moved from Hamilton to Miami County, Ohio, right after marriage. Squire's father Benajah had moved there in 1830 and his paternal grandfather, Richard AYRES, made the move a few months later. Squire's death in September 1849 came after seven weeks of typhus. Within a few months his widow–his third wife–shipped off his and Jane's only surviving child Rachel, aged 14, to live with her maternal aunt Nancy GOLDTRAP COVALT in Clermont County.

The children of Jane Goldtrap and her husband Squire Little Ayres, born at or near Piqua, Miami County, Ohio, were:[43]

i. Mary Ann AYRES, born 10 Sept. 1834; died 21 Sept. 1835
+ ii. Rachel Olger AYRES, born 20 May 1836
iii. John Goldtrap AYRES, born 24 Aug. 1838; died 16 Sept. 1839.

Nancy GOLDTRAP (John, John, John) was born on 7 June 1816 in Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, Ohio. She died on 24 April 1879 æ. 62 and is buried at Plainview Cemetery, Newtonsville, Clermont County, Ohio.[44] She was married on 12 December 1835 in Hamilton County to Frazier COVALT.[45] He was born on 11 August 1814 and died on 20 August 1876 æ. 62 and is buried aside Nancy.

Nancy and Frazier were living in Stonelick Township, Clermont County, Ohio, as of the 1850 U.S. Census. In addition to their son Geniah, they had Nancy's niece Rachel AYRES, aged 14, living with them.

The known child of Nancy Goldtrap and her husband Frazier Covalt, born probably in Clermont County, Ohio, was:

i. Geniah COVALT, born 1841; died 1887 æ. 46 in Clermont Co., OH; nothing further known.

John GOLDTRAP (John, John, John) was born about 1819 in Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, Ohio. We do not know where or when he died. He was married on 20 January 1842 in Clermont County, Ohio, to Christina Ann APGAR.[46]

John's father died when he was eleven. John MYERS, a relative (son?) of his aunt Sarah GOLDTRAP, wife of Aaron MYERS, was appointed his guardian in 1830 and again in 1834.[47] Several APGARS are buried at Hopewell Cemetery, Montgomery, Sycamore Township, which suggests that Christina may have come from there, like John.

The known child of John Goldtrap and his wife Christina Ann Apgar, born probably in Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, Ohio, was:

i. John S— GOLDTRAP, born 23 July 1849; died 1 Sept. 1850 æ. 1, bur. Hopewell Cem., Montgomery, Sycamore Twp., Hamilton Co., OH.

Fifth Generation

Harriet GOLDTRAP (William, John, John, John) was born about 1828 in Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, Ohio. We do not know when she died. She was married there in 1849 to Benjamin BOWEN, who was born on 21 January 1821 at Gloucester, R.I., and died after 1883 probably in Brown County, Ohio. He was the son of Benjamin Bowen and his wife Lucinda SAYLES, who came from R.I. to Hamilton County, Ohio, in 1833.[48]

Harriet and Benjamin lived in Brown County, Ohio, Benjamin later married Harriet's younger half-sister Margaret. Benjamin was brought to Hamilton County, Ohio, by his parents in 1833, where his father died in 1846 and his mother in 1852. Benjamin moved to Marathon Township, Brown County, in 1856 and acquired 154 acres there. He was township trustee and member of the school board.[49] Harriet and Benjamin's children were:

i. Naomi BOWEN
ii. Pardon BOWEN
iii. Isaac BOWEN
iv. Samuel BOWEN
v. Thomas BOWEN
vi. Charles BOWEN
vii. Eva M. BOWEN.

Thomas M— GOLDTRAP (William, John, John, John) was born on 18 September 1835 in Symmes Township, Hamilton County, Ohio. He died on 18 February 1907 æ. 71 and is buried at the IOOF Cemetery between Owensville and Stonelick, Clermont County, Ohio (stone). He was married about 1860 to Permelia P. ----, who was born on 23 February 1841 and died on 1 April 1884 æ. 43 and is buried aside Thomas.

Where Thomas and Permelia lived has not been learned. Their known children (stones) were:

i. Chilton GOLDTRAP, born 8 May 1865; died 11 March 1876 æ. ten, buried aside his parents
ii. —— GOLDTRAP, born and died 8 Feb. 1868.

Margaret A— GOLDTRAP (William, John, John, John) was born on 2 October 1840 in Symmes Township, Hamilton County, Ohio. She died on 3 October 1878 æ. 38 and is buried at the IOOF Cemetery between Owensville and Stonelick, Clermont County, Ohio (stone). She was married to Benjamin BOWEN, widower of her older half-sister Harriet (see above).

Margaret and Benjamin lived in Brown County, Ohio. Apparently no issue.

John S— GOLDTRAP (Thomas, John, John, John) was born on 13 July 1844 in Clermont County, Ohio. He died after 1881. He was married on 22 February 1873 probably in Cincinnati, Ohio, to Emma B— WHITE, who was born on 22 May 1854 and also died after 1881, daughter of Dr. R— P— White of Cincinnati.[50]

As of 1881 John was the supervising agent of the Singer Sewing Machine Co. in Union Township, Fayette County, Ohio, and was handling sales of over $1,500 a month. His and Emma's child was:[51]

i. Bessie May GOLDTRAP, born 29 April 1878.

Rachel Olger AYRES (Jane Goldtrap, John, John, John) was born on 20 May 1836 at or near Piqua, Miami County, Ohio. She died on 12 June 1907 æ. 71 at Indian Hill, Cincinnati, Hamilton County, Ohio, and is buried at Greenlawn Cemetery, Milford, Ohio. She was married on 30 December 1857 at Springdale, Hamilton County, to Christopher Columbus CLARK, who was born on 10 July 1836 near Withamsville, Clermont County, Ohio, and died on 27 June 1907 at Indian Hill and is buried aside Rachel. He was the son of Orson Clark (1792-1864) (James, John, Edward, Edward) and his wife Nancy Corbly (1800-1877) (John, John) of Newtonsville, Clermont County.

Rachel's husband, a farmer, was an accomplished cabinet maker. He served in the Civil War with Co. C, 125th Infantry Regiment, Ohio Volunteers, and was wounded in action. Their children, born at Stonelick, Clermont County, Ohio, were:[52]

i. Elizabeth Jane CLARK, born 30 Oct. 1858; died 10 April 1918 at Madisonville, Hamilton Co.; never married
ii. William E— CLARK, born 20 April 1860; died 16 Feb. 1864
iii. Orson Winfield CLARK, born 20 Oct. 1861; died 8 July 1921 at Cincinnati; married there 7 Sept. 1886 to Charlotte R— SMITH; 4 ch.
iv. Harmon F— CLARK, born 25 May 1863; died 5 Feb. 1864
v. Newton C— CLARK, born 12 March 1865; died 24 May 1886 at Clinton Valley, OH; did not marry
vi. Frank Ashburn CLARK, born 6 June 1868; died 12 Nov. 1933 at Madeira, Hamilton Co.; married 16 Nov. 1899 at Mattoon, IL, to Catherine GOODWIN; 2 ch.
vii. Geniah Covalt CLARK, born 2 Oct. 1871; died 26 Nov. 1871 viii. Herman S— CLARK, born 8 July 1874; died 1962 at Torrence, CA; married 12 Jan. 1911 at Cincinnati to Bertha GRUB; no issue
ix. Willard A— CLARK, born 9 Sept. 1877; died 19 Aug. 1957 at San Francisco; never married.

Thursday, August 8, 1889, Volume XXV, Number 5l

Mr. J.H. WADE, wife of the well known Cleveland (O.) banker, died on the 4th at the Florence apartment house, in New York City, where herself and husband were stopping for a few days on their way to Long Branch. She was seventy-five years old.

Thursday, September 12, 1889, Volume XXVI, Number 5...Charles WESTRICK, the postmaster at Bismarck, Ohio and also township treasurer, is reported short in his accounts $1,859. His bondsmen have given him a few days in which to settle.

Thursday, September 19, 1889, Volume XXVI, Number 6...Ellis JOHNSON, of Mt. Union, Ohio who celebrated his one hundredth birthday last April, died Sunday.

Thursday, Nov. 28, 1889, Vol. XXVI, No. 16...George S. EGGERSON, of Springfield, Ohio went to Urbana to attend the funeral of a relative, driving to that place in a buggy. He left Urbana about 7 o'clock, and when next seen was dead. About 9 o'clock William WILSON, a farmer living three miles north of Springfield had his attention attracted by a horse and buggy, because he thought the robe was dragging in the mud. He called out but received no reply, and going nearer was horror stricken to find that the supposed robe was a frightfully mangled man, whom he recognized as EGGERSON. Over the front axle, between the shaft and the right wheel, rested the right arm and shoulder Beneath the axle, face downward was the head. His body dragged along the ground, the feet rubbing against one of the hind wheels. The body was wedged in so tightly between the shaft and the wheel that it was with difficulty extricated. The spokes of the front wheel, against which the body rested, were entirely cleaned of paint. His limbs were frightfully bruised from striking the ground and two large gashes were cut in his back. The presence of these two wounds cannot be accounted for and indicate foul play. He had no money of any amount on his person and could hardly have been the victim of persons desiring mere plunder. Evidences were to the effect that some enemy, with whom he had trouble, is responsible for his death.

Thursday, Dec. 12, 1889, Vol. XXVI, No. 18... What appears to have been a deliberate murder for robbery was committed shortly after midnight, at No. 110 Butler street, Cincinnati. The victim was Bridget BYRNS, aged 70 years, who lives alone in a little cottage at that place. She was a market woman, but it was known that she had saved money, had bought bonds and that she kept them in her house. The first knowledge of the crime was obtained by a neighbor's family hearing some one burst into their kitchen. It was Mrs. BYRNS, who fell bleeding on the floor. She was nearly dead, but managed to gasp, "John SMITH did it; he tried to rob me." She was taken to the hospital, and on the way stated to officer that it was "Brocky" SMITH, "Brocky" being the name given to the John SMITH she had named as the murderer. She was dead when the wagon reached the hospital. Her wounds were a dozen in number, and were made by a knife. John or "Brocky" SMITH, who lived in a house in front of Mrs. BYRN'S cottage, was arrested in bed. Blood was found on his sleeve and on his undershirt, but he said that came from a fight he had with his brother. Later the officers found the bloody knife, supposed too have been the weapon he used; It was secreted in a closet on the premises. The room occupied by Mrs. BYRNS was spattered with blood, and the furniture showed that a fearful struggle had been made by the woman for her life. It is thought the murderer was deterred from getting her money or bonds by the outcry she made and his fear that he would be discovered.

Thursday, Dec. 26, 1889, Vol. XXVI, No. 20... At Niles, Ohio the bodies of Charles SHELAR, his wife and three children were discovered stiff and cold in death, with their throats cut from ear to ear. SHELAR, and his wife were lying together across the foot of the bed, at their residence, and the three children were on the floor in different parts of the house. SHELAR was a mill man and had steady employment, but of late drank heavily, and it is rumored that he and his wife did not live happily together. The theory advanced is that SHELAR, in a fit of madness, cut the throats of his wife and children and then his own. The weapon used was a razor and was purchased by SHELAR of a hardware dealer Saturday evening.

Thursday, Jan. 9, 1890, Vol. XXVI, No. 22... At Youngstown, O., Mrs. Charles EDMONDS made an unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide by taking morphins. Mrs. EDMONDS is the woman who was assulted a short time ago by her own father, John C. McCREERY. EDMONDS administered such a body beating to McCreery that he died, and is now awaiting trial on charge of murder.

Thursday, Jan. 16, 1890, Vol. XXVI, No. 23... Charles HOFFEE left Carrollton, Ohio, a couple of years ago, leaving a wife and two children behind. Recently he eloped with Miss May CHENEY, a 16 year old girl at Breman, Ga., and is now in jail for Bigamy. Previous to marrying Miss May CHENEY he wrote to his wife asking a consent to a temporary divorce, that he would marry the daughter of Dr. CHENEY, who was worth about $90,000 and after he had gotten possession of her money he would desert her and procure a divorce, and return and remarry his first wife. This his wife would not consent to, and he then wanted her to keep quiet and not interfere in case she heard of his marriage to Miss Cheney until he had secured as much cash as possible, but instead of doing as he requested she sent word to the authorities that he had a wife living from whom he had not been divorced, and, upon receipt of the message, HOFFEE was arrested and placed in jail. He lived high until his career led him behind the bars, representing himself as a Northern capitalist of great wealth looking for investment in the South.

Thursday, Jan. 23, 1890, Vol. XXVI, No. 24... Just as the class in waiting at the Cincinnati (Ohio) College of Medicine was gathered about the body of an old man on the dissecting table the other afternoon, and the knife of the instructor was about to be used, a young man entered the room, and giving one look at the dead man, threw himself upon the body, crying: "My father, oh, my poor father!" The young man was John DALY, and the body on the dissecting table was that of his father, Carroll DALY. The old man was addicted to drink and had died without his relatives knowing anything about his whereabouts. They saw the death notice, however, and began a search for the body, with the result above described. The body was given to the son.

Thursday, May 22, 1890, Vol. XXVI, No. 41...James MAQUIRE, a well-known resident of Lima, Ohio was very cleverly buncoed out of $5,000 by two strangers. Mr. MAGUIRE lately sold a farm in Perry township for $20,000 which he brought to Lima and deposited in the bank. He moved his family into the city after selling the farm, and has been taking the world easy, living on Kebby street. The bunco game was played in this way: One of the men hired a horse and buggy at the livery stable, and driving out to the MAGUIRE residence asked the proper road to take to Hume station. He was directed and afterward got into conversation with MAGUIRE all the while acting as if he was drunk, or else very simple minded. He displayed a roll of money amounting to $15,000. Just then the other stranger appeared on the scene and said that the man in the buggy was silly to carry so much money with him. The last man was a large man, and told MAGUIRE his name was PORTER and he was a director of the First National bank, and a member of the Trinity M.E. church. MAGUIRE and the large man asked the man in the buggy why he did not deposit his money in the bank. He replied that banks were unsafe. The large man then showed MAGUIRE a roll of money, amounting, he said to $8000, and proposed that MAGUIRE go to the bank and draw $5000. By this means they would influence the man in the buggy to deposit his money. maguire came up town and drew out of the Ohio National bank $5000, and returned with it. The large man produced a tin box, and placing his money in it, told Maguire to put in his $5000, which he did, and then the halfwitted man in the buggy put in his roll, and all got in the buggy and drove out South Main street. Before alighting, however, Maguire and the large man had arranged before reaching the Chicago & Atlantic tracks Maguire should alight, and return to the bank on a street car. So when the end of Main street was reached MAGUIRE got out, and came back to the bank to deposit the money, which he supposed would amount to $3,000. Upon opening the box it was empty. The box had been changed during the buggy ride, and Mr. MAGUIRE was minus his $5,000. The confidence men lost no time in getting out of the city. MAGUIRE says he can identlfy the parties.

Thursday, July 24, 1890, Vol. XXVI, No. 49...Columbus, O.,July 21...Today while enroute to Columbus, Vance E. STOFLEY, a member of the Central Detective agency of Topeka, Kan., was suddenly seized with rabies and cleaned out an entire car with the exception of a companion, who fearlessly remained with him. About six weeks ago a fierce hound invaded a house about four miles from London, O. and Mr. SOFLEY was called upon to drive it out. He did so, but was bitten upon the cheek by the animal. Shortly afterward the hound went mad, and fearing the worst the friends of Mr. SOFLEY secured a card of admission to St. Francis hospital here and he was placed on a Little Miami train with a companion and started for Columbus this morning. While enroute he suddenly became crazed and exhibited every sympton of rabies. The passengers fled from the car in the utmost alarm and the doors were locked by the trainmen to prevent the afflicted man from getting out at the people who were on the train. He foamed at the mouth, snapped and snarled at everyone he saw, and at the merest sight of water threw him into violent convultions. At the depot an effort was made to have him taken home, but the railroad people refused to furnish him transportation back, fearing that he would clean out the train. He was then taken to the station house for safe keeping and placed in a corridor, out of the way of everybody. Here he had spasm after spasm, and when brought a substantial meal could eat but little and could drink nothing but milk. He barked and snapped and struck with his hands, his actions being most horrible to contemplate. His eyes protruded from their sockets. His tongue hung out, and his breast heaved as if he were being strangled. Strong men who saw him turned away from the sight sick at heart. His condition is pitable, and it is awful to see a human so afflicted. At times he is rational, and again a raving maniac. The Marshall at London will be over after him to-night. SOFLEY is a man of about 35 years old and well built.

The boat was bound for Pittsburgh, and was moving slowly up the river, but with a full pressure of steam. Most of the men killed and injured were sleeping in their bunks at the time of the accidnet. AYDELOTTE, editor of the Butler county Democrat and Daily Democrat, was killed in an accident in the press room of the paper this afternoon. For several days the Democrat has been using the press-room of its new building. A gas-engine of the vertical pattern is used for power, and has not been working properly for a day or two. Mr. AYDELOTTE was examining the engine at the time, when his overcoat caught in the small wheel of the governor. This wheel, about a foot in diameter, was making over 200 revolutions per minute. It is located about two feet above a hard cemented floor. With inconceivable rapidity the coat was wound around the governor, and the unfortunate man firmly held and thrown on his back on the wheel. His head, arms and legs struck the cement floor with every turn, the engine being stopped by the body of the man, breaking the gas pipe that fed it. He was taken out alive, but never recovered consciousness and died a few hours later.

AN ODDITY IN THE CENSUS...

Millie Walters O'Dell, 2225 E.Market, Warren OH

Found in the 1850 census of Womelsdorf Tp., Berks Co PA an editorial note by the census taker concerning one JAMES BRICKER in household 101/131, listed as aged 17 years, and a "dumb idiot."

"The individual in this family noted as a "dumb idiot" is a most extraordinary being. He is not deaf although he does not possess the power of speech. But what is most extraordinary and unaccountable about him, is his power of handling wasps without being stung by them. He appears to have a peculiar attachment for those insects and will wander bear headed, all over town, in search of them. Sometimes he may be seen with three or four in his possession at once. The first thing he does after capturing one is to wet its wings with the tongue, after which he passes it over his cheek several times and then seats it on his person where it will remain, apparently under his control. In short his power over these insects is more perfect than that said to be possessed by the jugglers of India over certain species of the serpent tribe."

A CLARK FAMILY HISTORY

by Martha C. Metzler, 16846 Glenridge Ave., Middleburg Hts., OH 44130

Thomas Baker Clark came to Ohio in 1811. He was born in Harford Co., MD 28 Jan 1779, the son of Robert Clarke and Margaret Rigdon. The family left Harford Co, going to Beaver Co., PA, where Robert and Margaret are list in the 1880 census and Thomas B. is listed separately as a 21 year old head of household.

Thomas married Nancy Samples (aka Agnes) on 1 Jan 1807 in Beaver County. We know nothing of her parentage. The wedding was performed by the Rev. Thomas E. Hughes, who was Thomas's teacher at Greersburg Academy in Darlington, PA. As a result of this schooling, Thomas was licensed to preach by the Presbytery of Washington, PA, and went to Belmont Co OH where he was ordained in 1811. He first served a church at Wheeling Crossroads in Wheeling Tp., Belmont Co. The church was named Crabapple Presbyterian Church and had a congreagtion of 102 members.

Thomas and Nancy had two children born in PA and three born in Ohio: Maria b 1807; Alvin b 1809; Robert b 1811; Thomas b 1813 and Nancy b 1815. Following the birth of Nancy, the mother died and is probably buried in the old Crabapple Cemetery, although no grave could be located.

In addition to the church at Crabapple, Thomas also preached at a place called "Nottingham Tent Meeting" or Mission Station. During his tenure, a church was built there. It was necessary for him to ride horseback one Sunday a month to serve this area. Often, as he passed a mill on Stillwater Creek, he would observe that the mill was operating in defiance of the Lord's Day. He sometimes stopped and called out to the miller, saying that he was desecrating the Sabbath. On one occasion, he went into the mill to remonstrate with the miller, a Mr. Logan, who evaded him, and going out the back door loced it and also the front door and so kept the minister prisoner so that he missed his service. However, Thomas turned the event to good by so convincing the miller of the folly of his ways, that he became one of his most faithful parsishoners.

Eventually, dissension arose for a cause unknown and affairs came to such a pass that Thomas excommunicated most of his congregation. In 1817, the case was brought before the Presbytery and Thomas was dismissed. (The term dismissed did not always have a negative connotation, but was sometimes used just to indicate a separation.) The Crabapple Church congregation may have been a rather "unruly" bunch, as their first minister was also dismissed and the third one called to serve them refused to come.

Thomas apparently went back to Beaver County and bought property there: lot #145 in the Borough of Beaver in 1818, and in 1820, the east half of lot #79 on Third Street in the Town of Beaver. The lot was 60' x 200' and had a 2 story frame house, kitchen and stable, and cost $500.

In 1817, Thomas had 5 children aged 2 to 10 years, no wife and no job. Some of the children were probably brought up by his sister, Elizabeth Clark Munson, wife of the Rev. John Munson, another Presbyterian preacher. The Munsons lived for a while in Mercer County PA, and had no children. We believe that Thomas Marquis Clark's descendants lived there early in the 20th Century.

While he was in PA, Thomas remedied the situation of the motherless family by marrying a woman in Fayette Co PA named Mrs. (or Miss) Martha Wyles or Wylie. Little is known about her except that she bore Thomas six children and is probably buried in an old cemetery near Old Washington in Guernsey Co. OH. It is on the site of the original Leatherwood Church which burned long ago. The cemetery is overgrown and neglected.

About 1818, Thomas was back in Ohio, preaching in a combination of churches in Guernsey County: Seneca, Leatherwood and Little Buffalo. He remained there until 1831 or 1832, when he went to Logan County in western Ohio. There is another funny story about his leaving Guernsey County. At the time he was called to serve, apparently no definite compensation was agreed upon in writing and before he left, he insisted on being paid. The church refused and the took the matter to the Presbytery. The church was ordered to pay him before they could call another minister!

As nearly as can be determined, Maria, Alvin and Nancy all moved to Logan County with, or just after Thomas moved there. Robert Samples Clark stayed behind in Belmont County, then 20 years old. There is no record of Thomas Marquis Clark ever having lived in either Belmont or Logan Counties.

In 1832, Thomas married for a third time, in Belmont County, this time to a widow with two daughters, Frances Fletcher Stilwell, widow of Obadiah Stilwell, a War of 1812 veteran.

When they moved to Logan County, Frances left her two daughters behind in Belmont County. Hetty Ann Stilwell married Isaac Hazlett in 1831 and Mary Morrison Stilwell stayed with her mother's sister, Aunt Rebecca Fletcher Morrison, who was childless. Rebecca's husband was Robert Morrison, who apparently was a close friend of Obadiah Stilwell. John Morrison served as legal representative for Obadiah and collected his pay during the War of 1812. Robert Morrison was also a veteran of 1812, having served in the Battle of Lake Erie. His death date is unknown.

Robert and Mary Clark had two sons, Robert Morrison Clark and Thomas Chalmers Clark, born in 1840 and 1844. Mary died in 1849 but Robert and his two sons continued to live on the farm with Aunt Rebecca. The 1850 census lists him as head of household, a farmer with $3600 worth of property. Rebecca is listed as part of the household, 73 years old.

In 1852, Robert moved to Morristown and married Hetty Ann Stilwell Hazlett, now a widow with five children. Robert and Hetty had three more children. Hetty died in 1886 aged 71, and Robert in 1884, aged 81. Thomas Chalmers Clark died in 1862, aged 22 years.

Robert Samples Clark's surviving son, Robert Morrison Clark, married Sarah Elizabeth McKisson in 1862. They had four sons between 1862 and 1870. Robert Morrison Clark died in 1874 aged 38, and Sarah died in 1908, aged 68 years.

Both Robert Samples Clark and Robert Morrison Clark served as Auditor of Belmont County, the son following the father in office. Robert S. Clark was Ruling Elder of the Morristown Presbyterian Church for 50 years, and also served for 40 years as Superintendent of the Sunday School for which he was given a gold-headed walking stick.

Thomas Chalmers Clark, my grandfather, son of Robert Morrison Clark, left Belmont Co. to work in Brilliant, Jefferson County, OH, where he lived the rest of his life.

In 1862, Robert Morrison Clark married Sarah McKisson, daughter of Samuel & Joanna (Broomhall) McKisson, the ninth of ten children. Four of her brothers served in the Civil War and one of them was killed. Joanna died in 1847 and Samuel married her sister, Susan Broomhall Moore, widow of James Moore. The Moores had been married in 1825 and had 5 or 6 children. He died in 1843 aged 43. Susan and Samuel married in in 1848, the year following Joanna's death. James and Susan had children, at the time of Susan's marriage to Samuel, aged from 5 or 6 to 16 years, and perhaps an older one. Her children were named Narcissa, Hellen, Mary Elmira, William and Corwin.

Joanna and Susan were the daughters of Enos and Phoebe Broomhall who had come to Belmont County before 1808. Enos died in Ohio that year, having already acquired a farm before he died. The Broomhalls were Quakers and the parents of 9 children born between 1790 and about 1805. All of the family members were eventually disowned by the Society of Friends for marrying "contrary to discipline" (outside the church). Enos Broomhall's father was probably John Broomhall, who lived near the British seaport of Bristol. When he was about 12 or 14 years old, he went to the waterfront to watch the ships and was kidnapped and brought to America. There he was indentured to a Quaker named Paynter, for seven years, for money to pay his passage. In 1751, he married, wife's name unknown, and had four sons, Thomas and James who became Episcopalians, and John and Enos, who became Quakers. It is possible, though not proven, that this Enos Broomhall was the one who married Phoebe House.

Phoebe House was the daughter of Amos House and Sarah Townsend. Amos' birthdate is not known, but Sarah was born in 1743 in Chester Co., PA. Amos died in 1821, leaving a will. The final account includes the cost of his coffin and the charge for digging his grave. Sarah died in 1777 of a fever contracted while nursing a soldier, probably from the Battle of Brandywine. There is an interesting account of this battle in the HISTORY OF CHESTER COUNTY. John Broomhall and Amos House were members of Birmingham Friends' Meeting near Chads Ford. There were rumors that the British army was about to land at the mouth of the Susquehanna River and march in the direction of Philadelphia. The Continental Army marched overland in very hot weather, in August, and many of them suffered from heat stroke, so Washington comandeered the Quaker Meeting House as a hospital. John and Amos heard that there would probably be a confrontation nearby and they went early one morning to see what was going on. They wandered around on the battlefield all day, talked to the soldiers and observed the battle. At the end of the day, they were pressed into service to bury the dead. When they got home, they found that their womenfolk were very upset at having been left alone all day, during the battle.

Amos House was a nephew of Elizabeth Richardson Chads, widow of John Chads who had operated a tavern and ferry at the ford that was named for him. As a young man, Amos lived with his aunt and operated her farm.

Amos and Sarah had one son, James, and four daughters: Phoebe, Elizabeth, Susanna and Martha. Sarah Townsend as a daughter of John Townsend and Joanna England. John was born in Chester (now Delaware) Co PA on 2 Dec 1716, and died 18 Aug 1803. John and Joanna had 10 children, of whom Sarah was the second. John was the son of Joseph Townsend and Martha Wooderson. He was born in Berkshire, England, and died in Chester Co., PA. Joseph and Martha had eight children: John was the fourth.

Joseph was the son of William Townsend, a carpenter, of England, born 1652, died 1692. He had two wives, Jane Smith and Mary Lawrence. The record is not clear as to which is the mother of Joseph. They did not come to America, but William's older brother, Richard, came with William Penn on the "Welcome" and his third child, James, was born on board ship, off Upland, PA.

William's father was Richard Townsend, a weaver, of Bucklebury Parish, Hundred of Reading, County of Berks. He was born in 1602 and died 19 May 1697. He was imprisoned in 1660, 1662 and 1675 and his goods confiscated in 1680 and 1681 for refusal to support the parish priest and to bear arms. His sons were William and Joseph, his daughters Joan and Mary, and "there were three more children." (including Richard).

INVALID PENSIONERS, QUALIFIED BY ACT OF CONGRESS, 10 APRIL 1806

Virginia E. McCormick, 335 Bristol Way, Worthington OH 43085

The following list is taken from Annals of the Congress of the United States, (Washington: Gales & Seaton, 1852) 9th Congress, 2nd Session pp.1292-1295, 1oth Congress, 2nd Session, pp.1847-1852.

This is a transcription of pensions received by disabled soldiers, primarily for Revolutionary War service, by special act of Congress, 10 April 1806. There are 166 names on the list as receiving invalid pensions (or an increase on a previous claim which may have been paid by the state) between 10 April 1806 and 18 Jan 1809. This list probably contains a significant number of names who were deceased by the time the general pension act was passed in 1818. Unfortunately there is no information here on place of residence or type of service, with the exception of Benjamin Bartlett during the Indian Wars. Pension rates were determined by rank and length of service.

GERMAN-AMERICAN NAMES. By George F. Jones. 1990. Genealogical Publishing Co., 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202. 268 pp. Indexed. Hard bd. $25.

Most of this book (200 pages) is comprised of an alphabetical list of spellings and meanings of about 12,700 names of German derivation. This list has a somewhat confusing numerical reference which genealogists will assume means page number, but actually refers to paragraph number in the first section, dealing with name derivation. The explanations are helpful and quite detailed.

RESEARCHER'S GUIDE TO AMERICAN GENEALOGY. By Val D. Greenwood. Second edition. 1990. Genealogical Publishing Co., 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202. 623 pp. Illustrated. Indexed. Hard bd. $24.95.

This is the second edition of a classic in the genealogy field. Since the first edition in 1973, so much as changed that the author rewrote his book updating it to include all major new developments. Like the original, this is a book that can be a comprehensive textbook to a newcomer or an excellent reference to an experienced researcher. Some new topics covered in this edition are a chapter on genealogical evidence, selection of personal computer, and writing the family history.

THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS: A GUIDE TO GENEALOGICAL AND HISTORICAL RESEARCH. By James C. Neagles. 1990. Ancestry, Inc., Dept. SKV, P.O. Box 538, Salt Lake City, UT 84110. 381 pp. Soft bd. Illustrated. Indexed. $35.95 plus $4.50 postage and handling.

This is another attractive book from Ancestry on an important genealogical topic, the Library of Congress. Part I is an overview of the Library's history, various categories of material available to the researcher, including records showing residence (e.g. city directories), family activity (e.g. church records), military service, and sources on immigrants and English-speaking ancestors. Over half of the book is a listing of key source material divided first by region, then state. This includes specific listings of each state's city and county directories available at the Library of Congress.

OBITUARIES, A GUIDE TO SOURCES. Second edition. By Betty M. Jarboe. 1989. G.K. Hall and Co., 70 Lincoln St., Boston, MA 02111. 362 pp. Hard bd. $75.

This book is an attempt "to assist researchers in their pursuit of obituaries". It is basically a list of varied sources (periodicals, cemetery records, published volumes of obituaries) arranged geographically by state. There are also helpful lists of international and U.S. sources that are often overlooked by genealogical researchers. There is an appendix which lists obituary card files in libraries, and only one is given for Ohio (Cleveland Public Library) and many states, which is misleading. "There is no claim that this bibliography includes everything published within its scope".

Part 2 gives a wealth of information on searching in the individual countries using the resources of the Genealogical Library in Salt Lake City and through local Family History Libraries. This territory was for many years under the rule of the Spanish, British, and various Indian tribes. It was necessary for the pioneers to carry with them permission slips or passports for entry and passage through these lands. These passports carry important data for the genealogist. Several thousand of these passports are documented in this volume. These are well indexed and several thousand persons are listed. If you have an ancestor who migrated into the Mississippi Valley from one of these states, this book is a must.
